

INDEX OF CHAPTERS

CHAPTER I—GEOGRAPHICAL DESCRIPTION

Location and Area—Islands—Ohio River described—
Bottom lands—Hills—Creeks—Burning Springs—Eureka Anticlinal—Oil Sands—Minerals—Climate—Farm Products—Population. Page 1

CHAPTER II—RIVAL DISCOVERIES AND CLAIMS

Tygart the Trapper—Isaac and Jacob LaRue—French
Discovery—La Salle—La Belle Riviere—English Claims—
Bienville's Expedition—The Lead Plates—Christopher
Gist—Remains of Mound Builders—French and Indian War—Washington's Voyage—First Settlements—Border
Warfare—Tragedies of the Ohio—Opening the Forests—
Pioneers. Page 11

CHAPTER III—OUR FIRST SETTLERS

Genesis of Pleasants County—LaRues, Triplett, Riggs, Reynolds, Henderson—Journal of Lewis Summers—Chimney Bottom—Gorrell, Smith, Rolston and other families—Old State Road—Christian Schultz—Thomas Browse and his Journal—Alexander H. Creel—Vaucluse—Rumors of Railroad—Fighting for Glory—Floating Stores. Page 28

CHAPTER IV—MAKING A NEW COUNTY

First Discussion—Donations—The Vote—Organization

—Building the Court House—Licensing “Ordinaries”— First Courts—Elections and Politics—Mustering the Militia. Page 53

CHAPTER V—THE BEGINNING OF ST. MARYS

First Owners of Site—Survey Made—Creel’s Vision—Plat of Town—Creel street—First Buildings—Road to Northwestern Pike—Teamsters—B. & O. Railroad—Town
Incorporated. Page 62

CHAPTER VI—DURING THE CIVIL WAR

Sentiment divided—Vote of 1860—Secession Ordinance
—Forming New State—Prisoners of War—Confederate
Raid—Drafting Men—Bounties. Page 70

CHAPTER VII—EARLY INDUSTRIES

Squatters Cabins—Tanbark and Lumber—Rafting—
Barrel Staves—Fossil Oil—Great Oil Strike, Hendershot
Well—Transporting Oil—First Well Shot—Wells at Vau-cluse—Coopering—Eureka-Belmont Field. Page 75

CHAPTER VIII—THE FIRST SCHOOLS

Schools described—School Districts—Official Oath in 1865—Salaries of Teachers—Tax List Washington District
1865—Old Time Teachers—The Town School and Teachers. Page 81

CHAPTER IX—THE COMING OF THE NEWSPAPER

The Watchword—County Postoffices—St. Marys in 1877—River Transportation—Leading Citizens Described —Literature—Apparel—Fishing—Prettyman’s Observer.
Page 94

CHAPTER X—BUILDING THE RAILROAD

Steamboats—St. Marys in 1884—Surveys for Road—
Great Flood of 1884—First Passenger Service.
Page 105

CHAPTER XI—STRIVING FOR IMPROVEMENT

The old Court House—M. P. Church—Sheep and Cattle—Silver Ore—Telephones—A Teachers Institute—S. Kinaird—Barney Olmstead—Stores and Hotels—Belmont Founded—Campaign of 1888—Big Oil Wells at Eureka.

Page 114

CHAPTER XII—THE BELMONT OIL BOOM

La Grippe—The Kangaroo Ballet—Belmont and Eureka Hotels—The Tom Cat Well—Bicycles—Star Route Carriers—Gas in St. Marys—New Schoolhouse—Broad Run Field.

Page 137

CHAPTER XIII—THE OIL BOOM AT ST. MARYS

Willow Island Run and Calcutta—War with Spain—Newport Centennial—Billsville—Coldest Day—Saloons—Water Works—Hotel Commercial Fire—Belmont Schoolhouse—New M. E. Church South—Electric Railways—Fairplains Addition—Phonographs—Automobiles.

Page 161

CHAPTER XIV—INDUSTRIAL ENTERPRISES

Spindel Top—Good Roads—New M. E. Church—Church of Christ—License—Button Factory—Gas Prices—High School—Oil Refinery—Flood of 1913—Chautauquas—Agricultural Agents—Electric Plant—Glass Factories.

Page 181

CHAPTER XV—THE WORLD WAR

War Declared—Drafting—Vagrancy Act—Training Camps—Food Regulations—Mortalities—Peace—The Return—The American Legion.

Page 207

CHAPTER XVI—RECENT IMPROVEMENTS

Property Valuations—The Banks—Making Roads—The Short Route Bridge—New Court House—City Charter Enlarged—Political Parties.

Page 217

CHAPTER XVII—CITY CHARTER, COUNTY POLITICS

The Recent Charter—Political Parties Banned—Water Works—National Politics in County—Equal Successes—List of County Officials. Page 226

CHAPTER XVIII—NEWPORT

When Founded—New England Settlers—Temperance House—Old Mill—Schools—Churches. Page 237

CHAPTER XIX—RELIGIOUS ACTIVITIES

Pioneer Preachers—Formation of Early Societies—Friends or Quakers. Page 242

CHAPTER XX—THE OLDER FAMILIES

Page 252